

I want media outlets kept as independent as possible. The trend of consolidation which has taken past during the last decade or two has resulted in stilted dialogue, greater censorship, diminished viewpoints. There is tremendous pressure from those who would benefit financially to reduce the number of viewpoints. I urge the FCC to continue the ban against media companies owning newspapers plus any other media outlets in the same market. --John Pielaszczyk